GENERAL WAIVER

I will hold harmless and indemnify the Amigo Airsho, Inc., its affiliated companies and officers, directors and employees from and against any loss, damage, liability, claims, cost and expense including legal fees which may be incurred by reason of my participation in the 2010 Amigo Airsho or related events. I agree to adhere to the Code of Conduct outlined in the Volunteer Handbook that includes, being courteous and helpful at all times, observing security and smoking regulations in all areas, cooperating fully with other volunteers, staff, police, security and military personnel. I will never make any statements to the media regarding any aspect of the event and will refer any questions to the Amigo Airsho President or Staff. I understand that I must follow the rules and regulations set forth and failure to comply will result in member not being in good standing and could be terminated as a volunteer:

- Willfully permitting any person to enter the events' grounds or restricted areas without proper authorization or without a valid ticket
- Damage to any Amigo Airsho property
- Failure to report to a shift as and when requested
- Theft of any property, including the property of any volunteer, sponsor, supplier or guest
- Serving alcoholic beverages to minors is prohibited. Intoxicated volunteers will be asked to leave the Sho.

I have read and understand the foregoing General Waiver and have signed it voluntarily.
